welcome

March 1, 2020

Welcome to Westminster Baptist Church (WBC) this wonderful Sunday morning. We're so glad you have chosen to worship with us.

Today is the last Sunday I will be preaching as your interim pastor. It has been a blessing to serve along side each of you. As we come to the close of this chapter in the history of WBC, I want to share with you some thoughts about Unity Through Diversity. God has graciously equipped each of us as individuals to serve as a part of His body. The body of Christ is manifest when each member functions within the charisma provided by God.

Faye and I have certainly felt the prayers of each of you throughout our time at WBC. We leave with some sadness, but more gladness for how God will continue to use each one of you to build up the Kingdom. Thank you all for your support during our time with the WBC family.

Blessings to you, Pastor Dave.

Help Needed! We've taken down the Sanctity of Life crosses and noticed that they need a little repair work. That's where you come in! Stop by 207 Retreat Street on church property. There are several boxes of crosses and a sign out sheet on the porch. Take a numbered box, sign it out with your name and box number, repair, and repaint the crosses white. Please return your repaired crosses by May 1. Please see Beckie DeFoor or Dianne Kinard with questions.
