

Getting It Right the Second Time

Acts 19:1-7

Lessons from the Only Repeat Baptism in Acts

- A spiritual conversation brings needed insight.

- A clear understanding leads to faith in Jesus.

- A personal commitment is announced in baptism.

When Should Baptism Be Repeated?

Baptism should not be repeated when:

1. A Christian Disciple confesses and repents from sin.

2. A Christian Disciple makes a fresh commitment to follow Jesus at a higher level.

Baptism should be repeated when:

1. A church fails to provide adequate counseling.

2. An individual has outward credentials without trusting in Jesus.

Dear Fellow Church Members,
 As my back continues to heal I am constantly reminded of your many prayers, visits, food, flowers, and cards.
 I will ever be grateful for all that you did for me during those difficult days. Many thanks. I treasure your friendship.
 Grady and I plan to marry June 4th immediately after the morning service with a reception following in the Social Hall. Please honor us with your presence.
